

St John Vianney English Hub

We are delighted to be joined for two virtual interactive webinars by

Ann Sullivan

‘Phonics for SEND pupils’

(Two part session)

Ann Sullivan has over 30 years’ experience in mainstream and specialist education, her career includes roles as a class teacher, literacy teacher, school-based Special Educational Needs Coordinator (SENCO), an advisory teacher for pupils with special educational needs and a Specialist Leader in Education (SLE).

Ann’s ‘Phonics for Pupils with Special Educational Needs’ programme was published in 2018 - the seven-part resource is a systematic, synthetic, linguistic phonics programme - adapted to be accessible for pupils with a range of moderate to severe and complex needs, including nonverbal children and those with significant physical disabilities.

Session 1—31st January, 2022 at 3.45pm—5.15pm

Session 2—7th February , 2023 at 3.45pm—5.15pm

Register for tickets at: St John Vianney English Hub Events | Eventbrite

Suitable for SLT, EYFS Leads, Teachers and EYFS Staff

The session will NOT be recorded, however, Ann will provide a handout which will be sent to delegates after the event.

